

2. REOPENING PROCESS

SUMMARY

As of the last week of May 2020, most European markets have indicated potential reopening dates for cinemas ranging from early May to early July. The territories for which a potential reopening date for cinemas has been announced are included in the table below – organised by reopening date. Please bear in mind that all the dates and reopening timelines included below are official dates from national authorities, which are not only provisional but also subject to change. Moreover, official authorization to reopen will not necessarily mean the effective reopening of all cinemas in a given territory.
